UNCG Undergraduate Application Instructions

The University of North Carolina at Greensboro welcomes your candidacy for admission. Please read the following general instructions, as well as any sections which pertain to you, before completing the application. Failure to provide complete, accurate, and truthful information will be grounds to deny or withdraw your admission, or dismiss you after enrollment.

Checklist for All Applicants

- Complete and sign the Undergraduate Application for Admission by the deadline noted in the instructions that pertain to you.
- Enclose a nonrefundable $55.00 check or money order made payable to UNCG through a U.S. bank for the application fee. Include your full legal name on your check. Applications received without the fee enclosed will not be processed. Do not send cash. If you prefer to pay by credit card, please apply online.
- Request official transcripts enclosed in sealed envelopes. Including transcripts with the application will save considerable processing time.
- Request that official SAT or ACT scores, including the writing component, be sent to UNCG directly from the testing agency. Test scores are required of all freshman applicants, as well as transfer applicants with fewer than 30 transferable hours.

- If you are a U.S. citizen born abroad*, please provide proof of citizenship (such as copy of U.S. passport, U.S. birth certificate, certificate of naturalization or certificate of citizenship).
- If you are not a U.S. citizen*, please provide one of the following:
 - Permanent Resident (copy of Permanent Residency Card I-551)
 - Permanent Residency Applicant (copies of Notice of Actions I-485 and approved I-130 or I-140)
 - Refugee or asylee (copy of Refugee/Asylee documents or I-94)

Note: This application is for domestic applicants (U.S. citizens, U.S. nationals, U.S. permanent residents, pending permanent residents, political asylees or refugees) who have never before enrolled at UNCG. International students must apply through the International Programs Center. For additional information, contact the Director of International Admissions at (336) 334-5404.*

Mail all required documents to:

UNCG Undergraduate Admissions, P.O. Box 26170, Greensboro, NC 27402

After completing the checklist above, please follow the instructions that pertain to you on pages 2 and 3.

Incomplete information will delay review of your application.

Freshmen

Freshmen are students entering UNCG directly from high school. For the fall semester:

- Application review begins September 1.
- Priority Consideration Applications are due November 1.
- Completed applications received between November 2 and March 1 will be reviewed on a rolling basis.
- Applications received between March 1 and July 15 will be reviewed on a space available basis.
- The application deadline for the spring semester is December 1.

Refer to the Checklist for All Applicants. Please pay careful attention to the following:

- Students who are not from NC public high schools should complete the top portion of the high school report form. Have your high school counselor fill out the bottom section, and arrange to have the form - along with your official high school transcript (in a sealed envelope) showing senior courses in progress - sent to UNCG.
- If you have completed any college courses while enrolled in high school, including summer session or extension work, request official transcripts from each institution attended.
- While not required, letters of recommendation may be considered as part of the application review.

Transfers

For admission consideration, transfer applicants must present 30 transferable semester hours or more of college credit from a regionally accredited institution, have a minimum overall transferable grade point average of 2.3 on a 4.0 scale as calculated by UNCG, have successfully completed a high school curriculum meeting the Minimum High School Course Requirements referenced on page 4, and be eligible to return to their last institution attended.

- Priority consideration applications (including all required credentials) are due by March 1 for the fall semester or October 1 for the spring semester.
- The final application deadlines are July 15 (space permitting) for the fall semester or November 15 (space permitting) for the spring semester.
- Have official transcripts submitted from each high school, college, or university attended, including summer session or extension work.
- Provide a list of courses in progress and include the course titles, course numbers, and the credit hours attempted. (You should not list the courses that will appear on your transcript.)
- Any student who has fewer than 30 transferable semester hours of credit must meet the requirements for both freshman and transfer applicants (including SAT or ACT scores). Any student who has attended a collegiate institution that is not regionally accredited must meet the requirements for both freshman and transfer applicants (including SAT or ACT scores).

Transfer students should contact the school or department of interest to learn of any additional entrance requirements specific to the major.

Adults

If you have been away from formal schooling for at least 12 consecutive months at any time and have completed high school, earned an adult high school diploma, or earned a GED, you may be considered for admission as a nontraditional adult student. If you are under 24 years of age, you must have fulfilled the Minimum High School Course Requirements (page 4) or a required sequence of college transfer courses to be eligible for consideration.

- Priority consideration applications (including all credentials) are due by March 1 for the fall semester or October 1 for the spring semester.
- The final application deadlines are July 15 (space permitting) for the fall semester or December 1 (space permitting) for the spring semester.
- Submit official transcripts from each college or university attended, including summer session or extension work.
- Submit official high school transcripts or GED scores. You are not required to complete the enclosed High School Report Form.

Former UNCG Students (see application deadlines on cover)

Former students must submit official copies of transcript(s) from each institution attended since leaving UNCG, along with the application and $55 application fee. Former students must meet the prevailing admission standards for the term in which they wish to enroll.

Students must clear all holds from their record, if applicable. Students who have been academically dismissed must also petition the Office of the Dean of Undergraduate Studies to return.

International Applicants

For the purpose of admission, UNCG defines an "international student" applicant as a foreign national who holds, or who intends to hold, a temporary, non-immigrant visa/status in the U.S.A. International students apply through the International Programs Center. For additional information, please contact the Director of International Admissions at (336) 334-5404.

Applicants who are U.S. citizens, U.S. nationals, U.S. permanent residents, pending permanent residents, political asylees, or refugees are considered "domestic" applicants and should apply through the Office of Undergraduate Admissions. For additional information, please contact the Office of Undergraduate Admissions at (336) 334-5243.

Second Baccalaureate Degree Applicants

If you hold a baccalaureate degree from a regionally accredited institution and wish to take undergraduate work toward a second baccalaureate degree in a different field, apply for admission as a second baccalaureate degree applicant.

- Priority consideration applications (including all required credentials) are due by March 1 for the fall semester or October 1 for the spring semester.
- The final application deadlines are July 15 (space permitting) for the fall semester or November 15 (space permitting) for the spring semester.
- Request official transcripts from each college or university attended, including summer session or extension work.
- You are not required to complete the enclosed High School Report Form.

Visiting Students

High school seniors with superior academic credentials may want to supplement their high school curriculum with courses at UNCG. To determine if you are eligible to enroll as a visiting student, please contact the Office of Undergraduate Admissions at (336) 334-5243.

College level visitors may apply through the Division of Continual Learning. Please call (336) 315-7044 or visit <http://web.uncg.edu/dcl> for more information.

Early High School Graduates

Students who plan to complete high school in less than four years with the intention of enrolling at UNCG are considered on a case by case basis. To determine if you are eligible to enroll as an early high school graduate, please contact the Office of Undergraduate Admissions at (336) 334-5243.

2Plus Applicants

2Plus Articulation students are transfer students with several unique requirements and procedures. Details governing their enrollment are provided for in the articulation notices. The decision for admission is based on successful completion of the AAS/ADN Degree, and other specific factors outlined in the 2Plus articulation notice. Students admitted under the 2Plus agreement must notify Undergraduate Admissions to change their major. A change in major may result in a change in the student's admissibility.

2Plus students must meet the grade point average requirements of the UNCG School of their major as designated in the articulation notice.

- Priority consideration applications (including all required credentials) are due by March 1 for the fall semester or October 1 for the spring semester.
- The final application deadlines are July 15 (space permitting) for the fall semester or November 15 (space permitting) for the spring semester.
- Have official transcripts submitted from each high school, college, or university attended, including summer session or extension work.
- You are not required to complete the enclosed High School Report Form.
- Use one of the codes listed below to answer question 5 (major code) on the application.

The Admission Process

Your application will be reviewed upon receipt of your application form and all required credentials. Should the Office of Undergraduate Admissions need additional information or documentation regarding your application, you will be contacted immediately. Applicants are notified in writing of decisions regarding their applications. However, admissions offers are contingent upon satisfactory completion of required courses and the maintenance of a satisfactory cumulative grade point average. Official final transcripts are reviewed to verify that admitted students meet all GPA and course requirements.

Admission to UNCG for traditional freshmen and transfer students is competitive based on a combination of your overall high school and/or college record as well as SAT or ACT scores*. In addition, you must meet the Minimum High School Course Requirements listed below.

Minimum High School Course Requirements

English (4 units) — emphasis on grammar, composition, and literature

Mathematics (4 units) — Algebra I, Algebra II, Geometry, one advanced course beyond Algebra II (required for 2006 high school graduates and beyond)

Science (3 units) — including at least one unit in life or biological science, at least one unit in physical science, and at least one laboratory course

Social Science (2 units) — including one unit in U.S. history and one unit in history, economics, sociology, or civics

Foreign Language (2 units) — both units should be in the same language (required for 2004 high school graduates and beyond)

If you are a transfer applicant who did not successfully complete the required high school units, you must complete specific college-level courses in order to transfer to UNCG. Contact the Office of Undergraduate Admissions for specific course requirements.

If you were home-schooled, attended a school that was not regionally accredited, or attended a school with non-traditional grading systems, you may be asked to meet additional admissions requirements.

* Transfer students who have more than 30 transferable semester hours of college credit are not required to submit SAT or ACT scores.

 Contact UNCG for an approved list of courses that satisfy the fourth mathematics requirement.

Special Requirements

Admission to the University does not guarantee selection into any specific major or area of study. Some departments have additional entrance requirements, including:

- Prospective dance majors participate in a selective admissions process. For details please call (336) 334-5570.
- Prospective interior architecture majors are required to attend a department-sponsored information session and submit a departmental application. For details please contact the Department of Interior Architecture at (336) 334-5320.
- Prospective music majors and minors are required to audition with faculty members in your area of study. For details please call (336) 334-5789.

For more information regarding additional requirements for specific programs, please reference our online Undergraduate Bulletin at www.uncg.edu/reg/Catalog or contact the appropriate school or department directly.

Equality of Educational Opportunity

The University of North Carolina and all of its constituent institutions are committed to equality of opportunity. There shall be no discrimination within the university against applicants, students, or employees on the basis of race, color, religion, gender, age, disability, or national origin, consistent with the provisions of applicable state and federal law.

The following is a coded listing of undergraduate majors and concentrations currently offered at UNCG.

*Pre-professional programs are not majors but rather a core of courses required for admission to professional schools. If you select one of the pre-professional programs, you should also indicate a major; for example, a student who selects the pre-medicine pre-professional program might choose to major in biology or chemistry.

“Lic” indicates a teacher education program.

26. Application Information for Lloyd International Honors College at UNCG

Lloyd International Honors College is a special option for exceptionally motivated students and admits students pursuing all undergraduate degrees. Successful applicants typically have at least a 1200 on the critical reading and mathematics portions of the SAT combined, a 3.8 high school weighted GPA, or a 27 ACT composite score. To be considered for admission, incoming first-year and transfer applicants must meet one of these criteria, and must also submit a supplemental Honors application. Be sure to monitor your SpartanLink portal frequently for application-related information and for access to the Honors portal and application once you have been admitted to UNCG. More information about the Honors College and a viewable PDF of the supplemental application are available at honorscollege.uncg.edu. Students interested in living in the Honors Residence Hall at North Spencer are advised to turn in their applications as early as possible.

Check here if you plan to apply to or have an interest in Lloyd International Honors College.

27. Essay (required for freshman applicants only)

Please provide short responses to the following TWO questions (50 words or less) on a separate sheet of paper:

- Describe yourself in 50 words or less.
- When you think of the predominant values that guide your personal life, what are the most important ones and why? (Please limit your answer to 50 words or less.)

Please submit an original essay of 150-200 words on ONE of the topics listed below on a separate sheet of paper:

- Explain why you want to be a UNCG Spartan and how you could make a difference to the campus community.
- How have your past experiences and interests influenced your choice of an academic major?
- If we had the opportunity to interview you, what would we learn about you that you have not already mentioned in this application?

28. UNCG in 3 is an accelerated program that allows highly motivated students to graduate in just three years. The program is designed for the growing number of high school seniors who enter the university with transferable college credit earned through Advanced Placement (AP), or other early college programs. More information is available at uncgin3.uncg.edu.

Check here if you plan to apply to or have an interest in UNCG in 3.

29. Campus Safety Questions (Required for All Applicants)

Your "yes" answer to one or more of the following questions will not necessarily preclude your being admitted. However, your failure to provide complete, accurate, and truthful information will be grounds to deny or withdraw your admission, or to dismiss you after enrollment. For the purpose of the following six questions, "crime" or "criminal charge" refers to any crime other than a traffic-related misdemeanor or infraction. You must, however, include alcohol or drug offenses whether or not they are traffic related.
