

The sequence below is contingent on the student completing the A.A. degree from a college in the North Carolina Community College System.

UNC Greensboro's Curriculum Plans reflect this degree program's courses and requirements published in the 2014-15 Undergraduate Bulletin. Some courses listed below may be taken in an alternate year and order. Students are responsible for meeting all applicable pre-requisites. Prior credit, course availability, and student needs must be considered in developing the individual plan.

notes:

<sup>1</sup> All students majoring in Middle Grades Education are required to complete an approved second concentration of at least 24-27 hours in a basic academic discipline or in an approved interdisciplinary studies program, although some departments have a 24-hour requirement. Depending upon the academic discipline selected, a maximum of 6 hours in either of the concentrations may be counted toward the General Education requirements.

<sup>2</sup> Admission to the program requires students to earn a grade of "C" or better in certain UNCG courses. NCCC students should seek dual-enrollment/consortium opportunities to complete these courses before their first semester at UNCG.
