UNCG is dedicated to helping students become engaged global citizens.

Students can make an impact on the world through leadership opportunities, undergraduate research, and service-learning projects. And you don’t have to study abroad to get a global perspective, thanks to the large international student population on campus. Events such as the annual International Festival bring students together to learn about other cultures.

Clubs Galore and So Much More

UNCG offers more than 200 student groups, including fraternities and sororities, performance groups, honor societies, school spirit groups, and much more. Annual events such as the Opening Carnival and Homecoming offer fun for everyone.
CAMPUS RECREATION OFFERS SOMETHING FOR EVERY TYPE OF ATHLETE.

Want to compete but not at the varsity level? Enjoy some friendly competition with intramural and club sports teams. Need a place to work out? UNCG’s new Student Recreation Center opens Fall 2016, offering fitness classes, free weights, an indoor climbing wall, cycle studios, swimming, and much more. Love the outdoors? Enjoy hiking, camping, or whitewater rafting with Outdoor Adventures.

UNCG’S DIVISION I SPORTS TEAMS BRING SPARTAN SPIRIT TO CAMPUS.

Games are free for students, who cheer for the Spartans against Southern Conference rivals in first-class facilities. Be sure to wear your blue and gold when the men’s basketball team takes on ACC opponents in the nearby Greensboro Coliseum. Go Spartans!

SERVICE

SERVICE IS NOT JUST A MOTTO AT UNCG. IT’S A WAY OF LIFE.

That means nursing students make house calls on elderly patients who have trouble getting to the doctor. Fraternities camp out to raise money for a local animal shelter. Some students spend their spring break helping flood victims while others work as summer interns at a sea turtle hospital. The UNCG community is dedicated to making a difference.

“I’ve always been out in the community. You make time for what you want to make time for. I go by the philosophy of Muhammad Ali: ‘Service to others is the rent you pay for your room here on Earth.’ It is our duty as citizens to give back.”

UNCG PUTS THE “GREEN” IN GREENSBORO

With an emphasis on recycling, a commitment to LEED certification, and honors that include being named a Tree Campus USA and a Bicycle Friendly University, UNCG is known for its emphasis on sustainability. Students find a variety of ways to get involved in the effort, such as making biodiesel fuel from recycled cooking oil (above, lower right) and working on models of solar-powered houses (above, lower left).

For the sixth year in a row, UNCG has earned the “Tree Campus USA” designation for promoting healthy trees and encouraging the spirit of conservation.
